Amend the Law of Settlement and Removal of Poor Persons A.D. 1883.
to Ireland.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 5    1. This Act may be cited as the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1883. Short title.
2. Section 34 of "The Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1876," shall be construed as if the term of one year had been specified therein at the time of the passing of that Act, instead 10 of three years, and the residence of a person in any part of a union shall be deemed to have had, and shall have the same effect in reference to the provisions of the said section as a residence in any parish.
- 15    3. For the purpose of reducing the period required by law for rendering a pauper irremovable, the term of three months shall be substituted for that of one year specified in section 8 of the Union Chargeability Act, 1865, and section 17 of the Poor Law Amendment Act of 1866. Irremovability by three months
residence.
28 & 29 Vict.
c. 79.
29 & 30 Vict.
c. 113.
- 20    4. This Act shall not apply to any pauper removed under any order of removal, or without such order under section 6 of the Union Chargeability Act, 1865, before the passing of this Act, or to any person in receipt of non-resident relief lawfully given, or in respect of whom any order of removal shall be pending at the passing of this Act. Saving clause.
28 & 29 Vict.
c. 79.
- 25    5. In this Act, unless inconsistent with the context, expressions have the same meaning as in the Poor Law Act, 1879. Interpretation.
42 & 43 Vict.
c. 54.
